

Ryan L. Green – Associate

“I look forward to further developing the business law practice at Cameron. With my personable approach and knowledge of the law, I manage clients’ legal needs in a way that allows them to focus on what they do best... business.”

BIOGRAPHY

Ryan joined Cameron Law Office Chartered near the end of 2007 and will support the firm’s business transaction, real estate and litigation practice. At Cameron, Ryan will support the firm in mergers and acquisitions, real estate and other business transactions, helping clients identify their options and moving various parties toward the deal or resolution. His experience spans corporate to private practice and has provided him with ample opportunity to learn the intricacies of business and corporate law, real property, land use and development, and litigation.

Currently a volunteer mock trial coach for the University of St. Thomas, Ryan’s interest in working with business owners has its roots in professional experience and formal education involving trial advocacy.

Ryan received his B.A. in political science from Saint John’s University and his Juris Doctor from the University of St. Thomas School of Law. He also studied abroad for a summer in Valladolid, Spain.
